

SPQG MINUTES

Jan. 10, 2008

The meeting was called to order at 7:05 p.m.

There was an announcement that Carol Vaages' husband had passed away and that there will be a prayer service at OLPH on Thursday for those wishing to attend.

Quilt Guild pins are on sale for $5.00 each. Those wishing pins are to contact Marilyn Reynar. The guild will send a donation to the Palliative Care Unit at the Grey Nuns Hospital, as per families request.

There are 10 spots remaining for the Guild Retreat in March. Rhonda will take additional names.

Maureen Martell thanked those who turned in two completed Comfort Quilts. Since only three additional tops and backings have been received, there will be no Quilt Bee in January. Everyone was encouraged to bring more to the February meeting so a Quilt Bee can be held in February.

Because it was necessary to shorten the length of the December Show & Tell, it was held early in the evening.

Coffee followed.

Linda Klem announced that a Trapunto Workshop will be held April 11 & 12, 2008 and she is taking registration.

Linda then introduced one of our own guild members, Lana Whatley, who presented a trunk show of her works. She has been a guild member since September 2001 but took her first quilting class in Slave Lake in 1989. The trunk show included numerous, beautifully done pieces that ranged from placemats, table runners, and wall hangings to quilts. The majority of these pieces were completed with exceptional hand quilting.

Draws were made:

- Squares - Ann Taylor
- Quibbets – Isobel Wilson, Lois Miller & Mary-Jane Cousins

- Draws - Ermeline Ference & Betty Kroeker

Meeting adjourned at 9:00
